aggested this plan of disposing of the ets. Andrade opposed it at first, on the ground that it was contrary to the spirit of the resolution previously adopted by the board, but Trent replied that the intent of that resolution was give the homesteader first chance at he land and his motion merely carried out that intent. This reply impressed the board and the motion was carried without further dissent,

Commissioner Campbell not fied the ourd that there are other town lots to be disposed of, including the old washhouse at Iwiler, a lot on the corner of Fort and Kunkink streets, containing 1,740 square feet; a small lot back of Makiki cometery, and a lot at the corer of Halekaulla and Klianca streets. It was pointed out that these are Julia I Oneha and his to A D Casbymusly business lots and could not | tro, Gdn under any circumstances be home Grace McNabb and his et al to stended, so, on motion of Trent, the seed immediately with the sale of these strictly town lots.

The homestending of the residence town lots will prevent the running up old system.

ng shown that the land wanted is encirely unsuited for homesteading, the board voted to suspend the resolution in that respect and consented to the immediate sale of the land.
